

2.12.170 Determining responsibility of bidders.

In determining responsibility of bidders pursuant to this chapter, the city may take into account the capacity or skill of the bidder to perform the contract or provide the service required; whether the bidder can perform the contract or provide the service promptly or within the time specified, without delay or interference; the experience of the bidder; the quality of performance of previous contracts or services; the previous and current compliance by the bidder with laws and ordinances relating to bidding or the contract or service or the purchasing process; the sufficiency of the financial resources and ability of the bidder to perform the contract or provide the services; the quality, availability of the supplies, or contractual services to the particular use required; the ability of the bidder to provide future maintenance and service for the use of the subject to the contract; quality of the product, goods or services proposed; and the number and scope of conditions attached to the bid. (Ord. 2005-292 § 1 (part)).
